BIOGRAPHY

As a senior advisor to Blue Rock's upper management, Joe helps fulfill Blue Rock's commitment to fortifying its position as a leader in the construction industry. Joe provides analysis and strategic advice for all aspects of the organization. He has 25 years of experience in operational and financial management. Joe is a graduate of La Salle University.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Prior to arriving at Blue Rock, Joe was the owner and president of Independent Wire and Insulation, Inc. in Philadelphia. At IWI, Joe had full fiscal and operational responsibilities for the corporation. IWI was a national distributor of magnet wire, insulation, motors, and related products used in the manufacture and repair of electrical transformers, motors and equipment. The company was later sold to Essex Group headquartered in Fort Wayne, IN, one of the world's largest copper purveyors.

For eleven years prior to starting IWI, Joe was involved with a family business that was one of North America's leading distributors of process materials, production supplies, specialty wire and cable, and value-added fabricated parts. The family company supplied the electrical OEM, motor repair and various assembly markets with over 100,000 critical products from 15 branches and three fabrication facilities in North America.
