BIOGRAPHY

As Chief Financial Officer at Blue Rock Construction, Joe plays a pivotal role in advancing the company's growth and solidifying its standing as a premier design-build contractor. With over 30 years of experience in financial and operational leadership, he delivers strategic insight to drive performance, manage risk, and ensure sustainable profitability.

Joe is known for his hands-on leadership style and pragmatic decision-making. He brings a deep understanding of both the financial and operational sides of business, positioning him as a trusted advisor to executive leadership and stakeholders.

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Before joining Blue Rock Construction, Joe served as Owner and President of Independent Wire and Insulation, Inc. (IWI) in Philadelphia. Under his leadership, IWI evolved into a nationally recognized distributor of magnet wire, insulation, motors, and components essential to the manufacturing and repair of transformers and electrical equipment. Joe successfully guided the company through its acquisition by Essex Group, a leading copper manufacturer headquartered in Fort Wayne, IN.

At Blue Rock, Joe has played a key role in enhancing financial systems, strengthening internal controls, and supporting business development initiatives that have contributed to the firm's continued expansion into high-growth markets, including data centers and life sciences.
